

Understanding Equine Liability in Connecticut

Date: Thursday, June 5, 2014

Time: 7 PM - 9 PM

Location: UConn College of Agriculture, Health and Natural Resources
W.B. Young Building, Room 100
Storrs, CT

Sponsored by: UConn Department of Animal Science, UConn Extension, Connecticut Horse Council and Connecticut Farm Bureau Association

Contact: Dr. Jenifer A. Nadeau (jenifer.nadeau@uconn.edu or 860-486-4471 or Stacey Stearns (stacey.stearns@uconn.edu or 860-486-9228)

Presentations Include:

Doug Dubitsky Esq., Equine and Agriculture Law. Doug will cover the recent Supreme Court decision regarding equine liability and the pending state statute responding to the Court's decision.

Ron Hocutt, Farm Family Insurance, Ron will discuss insurance options and what every horse owner and equestrian business needs to know.

Henry Talmage, Connecticut Farm Bureau Association, Henry will discuss how a bill becomes a law and what horse owners in Connecticut need to do moving forward.

The program will include ample time for Q&A and discussion of specific liability concerns of equestrians.

Ice cream from the UConn Creamery will be served!

---